Summary:

On March 26, 2021, at approximately 1849 hours, Cathedral City Police Dispatch received 911 telephone calls reporting gunfire heard at The Ocotillo Park, located at 33300 Moreno Road, Cathedral City. Police were dispatched and arrived on scene where they located two victims, an adult female and a male juvenile with gunshot wounds that required medical care. Cathedral City Police Paramedics arrived to treat the gunshot victims and handled the medical transport. The scene was secured and at this time, the circumstances surrounding the shooting are being investigated by the Cathedral City Police Detectives.

Update/arrests:

Officers were given information on two suspects that were seen by witnesses fleeing the scene. Officers were able to locate both suspects (an adult and juvenile) a short distance from the park and detained them without incident. Both were transported to the Cathedral City Police Department and subsequently arrested. The adult was later transported to the Riverside County Jail in Indio and the juvenile was transported to Riverside County Juvenile Hall.

Although the investigation is progressing, information is still vital to the closure of this case.
